

Campaign week for single parents: Perspectives for education, profession and family.

The network for single-parents in Berlin-Pankow and its working group Existence-Securing Employment are organizing a varied event in the week from May 2nd to 6th - a Campaign week for single parents in Pankow, during which various online and face-to-face formats revolve around the topics of work, training and further education.

Please refer to the event program to find out which of the events will also be held in English.: <https://alleinerziehend-in-pankow.de/aktionswoche-fuer-alleinerziehende-rund-um-berufliche-weiterbildung/?fbclid=IwAR1Vzbr7I6doHXN00ub7bbKD5IKbRBzfnlXhldlVIOtP4jPnuMzHCIXUJw>)

The Campaign week starts on May 2nd, 12 - 4 p.m., with a Kick-off event in the Heinrich Böll Library in the Greifswalder Straße.

This is where the network and its members present their offers - Apprenticeships are presented that specifically address the special situation of single parents and take those needs into account; single parents can get advice on training and further education opportunities in Berlin-Pankow (also part-time) and are presented an overview to the program of the week.

Tips are given for online applications, digital Platforms for single parents are presented and workshops carried out to recognize your own resources. Even a breakfast together and an afternoon of handicrafts for Children are on offer during the week. The various events of the campaign week will take place partly digitally and partly face-to-face.
